This weekend our parish group will be addressing all parishioners at our three weekend Masses. The SVP is a group of volunteer parishioners who set out to help anyone in need - regardless of faith or no faith. They need your assistance more than ever as people suffer the hardships resulting from the Covid -19 Pandemic. There are families short of food, lonely people who need a friend, homeless individuals and families, people struggling with financial hardship, those facing illness, and those living in a country far from their family and the place of their birth. Join them and work with them in whatever way you can - follow the teaching of Christ and answer his call to look after him in the poor.

If you could also make a donation that too would be helpful as due to the pandemic we have been unable to do any fund raising activities. Donations can be made via our bank account (SORT CODE 60 60 04: Account Number: 46082824) or placed in the basket at the back of church.

If you want to know more speak to Father Firth or contact Kath Altham (01282 813806) or come along to the next meeting on Saturday 2nd October at 10.30 in the Parish Centre.

THE WORD

Year B • Psalter Week 2

THE USE AND ABUSE OF JESUS' NAME

(MARK 9:38-43, 45, 47-48)

There is a certain irony in John's complaining to Jesus about the unauthorised exorcist who has been using Jesus' name – and therefore Jesus' power – to help people by casting out evil spirits.

Mark has related not long before this episode the incident where the father of an epileptic boy asks Jesus to cast out the spirit of dumbness from his son after Jesus' disciples proved unable to do so. Jesus reacts with frustration, saying, "You faithless generation... how long must I put up with you?" In his reply to John, Jesus makes it clear that his power is not limited to the circle of his disciples. There is even a hint that John is not quite clear about where this authority lies, as he actually says that the person in question does not follow us, rather than does not follow you.

This wider vision extends to people who show kindness to disciples who bear the name of Jesus.

The final paragraph is an example of the exaggerated speech which is characteristic of some Middle Eastern societies. The idea of self-mutilation as a remedy for sin is not to be taken in any way literally, but the language serves to underline the seriousness of attending to our moral Christian discipleship, not just for our own sake, but because it can undermine other people's following of Jesus. ■

SAY

"...nor can she be captured, silenced or restrained."

(John L. Bell and Graham Maule – on the Holy Spirit)

LEARN

The expression "little ones" is Mark's way of referring to people of simple faith.

People in the Middle Eastern society of Jesus' day often used exaggeration or hyperbole to emphasise the serious nature of what they were talking about.

The "donkey's millstone", which is what the text actually says, is the upper stone which the donkey would turn by walking around: it would be heavy enough to ensure death by drowning.

REFLECT

Reading the signs of the times is a useful theme for today's Gospel reflection. In these ecumenical days, we are more appreciative of the sincerity and values of other Christian bodies and of other religions: much of this progress comes from simply interacting with such people, getting to know them as individuals and seeing what we have in common, rather than what might divide us. Jesus' words about the exorcist acting without official permission are a warning to those who would restrict Jesus' influence to any privileged group.

The section on giving scandal is one which is of particular relevance, given the appalling revelations which have rocked the Church in recent years. It is clear that many people who have survived abuse have, understandably, lost their faith in God, Jesus and the Church, which is supposed to be "the sacrament of Christ's presence in the world". Those affected are not only those directly involved, but also those who are so bewildered or disgusted at this abuse of trust that they have abandoned the practice of the faith, if not their faith altogether.

We might remember that the Church is the whole people of God, not just the leaders. When the institution becomes more important than its reason for existing, then something has gone seriously wrong. Perhaps John's complaint about the unauthorised exorcist might be a warning today about thinking that the Spirit can be limited (or contained) within the structures of the Church: Jesus' teaching on dealing with the causes of scandal would go a long way to preventing future disasters. ■

DO

Make sure that you are familiar with your parish's safeguarding policy and requirements.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

All that you have done to us, O Lord, you have done with true judgement, for we have sinned against you and not obeyed your commandments.
But give glory to your name and deal with us according to the bounty of your mercy.

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you,
we bless you,
we adore you,
we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

COLLECT

O God, who manifest your almighty power above all by pardoning and showing mercy, bestow, we pray, your grace abundantly upon us
and make those hastening to attain your promises
heirs to the treasures of heaven.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God, for ever and ever.
Amen.

FIRST READING Numbers 11:25-29

A reading from the book of Numbers.

The Lord came down in the Cloud. He spoke with Moses, but took some of the spirit that was on him and put it on the seventy elders. When the spirit came on them they prophesied, but not again.

Two men had stayed back in the camp;
one was called Eldad and the other Medad.
The spirit came down on them; though they had not gone to the Tent, their names were enrolled among the rest. These began to prophesy in the camp. The young man ran to tell this to Moses, "Look," he said, "Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp." Then said Joshua the son of Nun, who had served Moses from his youth, "My Lord Moses, stop them!" Moses answered him, "Are you jealous on my account? If only the whole people of the Lord were prophets, and the Lord gave his Spirit to them all!"

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

PSALM

Psalm 18

Response:

The precepts of the Lord gladden the heart.

- The law of the Lord is perfect, it revives the soul.
The rule of the Lord is to be trusted,
it gives wisdom to the simple. (R.)
- The fear of the Lord is holy, abiding for ever.
The decrees of the Lord are truth and all of them just. (R.)
- So in them your servant finds instruction;
great reward is in their keeping.
But who can detect all his errors?
From hidden faults acquit me. (R.)
- From presumption restrain your servant and let it not rule me.
Then shall I be blameless, clean from grave sin. (R.)

SECOND READING James 5:1-6

A reading from the letter of St James.

An answer for the rich. Start crying, weep for the miseries that are coming to you. Your wealth is all rotting, your clothes are all eaten up by moths. All your gold and your silver are corroding away, and the same corrosion will be your own sentence, and eat into your body. It was a burning fire that you stored up as your treasure for the last days. Labourers mowed your fields and you cheated them – listen to the wages that you kept back, calling out; realise that the cries of the reapers have reached the ears of the Lord of hosts. On earth you have had a life of comfort and luxury; in the time of slaughter you went on eating to your heart's content. It was you who condemned the innocent and killed them;
they offered you no resistance.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!
Your word is truth, O Lord, consecrate us in the truth.
Alleluia!

GOSPEL Mark 9:38-43. 45. 47-48

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark.

John said to Jesus, "Master, we saw a man who is not one of us casting out devils in your name; and because he was not one of us we tried to stop him." But Jesus said, "You must not stop him: no one who works a miracle in my name is likely to speak evil of me. Anyone who is not against us is for us.

"If anyone gives you a cup of water to drink just because you belong to Christ, then I tell you solemnly, he will most certainly not lose his reward.

"But anyone who is an obstacle to bring down one of these little ones who have faith, would be better thrown into the sea with a great millstone round his neck. And if your hand should cause you to sin, cut it off; it is better for you to enter into life crippled, than to have two hands and go to hell, into the fire that cannot be put out. And if your foot should cause you to sin, cut it off; it is better for you to enter into life lame, than to have two feet and be thrown into hell. And if your eye should cause you to sin, tear it out; it is better for you to enter into the kingdom of God with one eye, than to have two eyes and be thrown into hell where their worm does not die nor their fire go out."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

PROFESSION OF FAITH

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

(all bow during the next three lines)

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord,
the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

PRAYER OVER THE OFFERINGS

Grant us, O merciful God, that this our offering may find acceptance with you
and that through it the wellspring of all blessing
may be laid open before us.
Through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

Remember your word to your servant,
O Lord,
by which you have given me hope.
This is my comfort when I am brought low.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

May this heavenly mystery, O Lord, restore us in mind and body,
that we may be coheirs in glory with Christ, to whose suffering we are united whenever we proclaim his Death.
Who lives and reigns for ever and ever.
Amen.
