SOME GOOD NEWS!

We have been successful with our application to the National Lottery Community Fund, who have agreed to fund the cost of replacing the boiler in the Parish Centre. Hopefully the work can commence soon and the Parish Centre will be able to get back to normal, supporting the Parish and the numerous community groups who use the centre regularly. Thank you to all parishioners and centre users for their patience over the past few months.

Thank you!

Thank you to all those who helped to clear out the boiler room and the area under the stage in the Parish Centre. It was great to see our community working together.

SVP News

The next SVP Meeting is on Saturday 28th February at 10.30 . New members are always welcome. Do come along and see what you could do to help others... Maybe a new commitment started in Lent!

SACRAMENTS OF RECONCILIATION AND HOLY COMMUNION

We recognise that some children who do not attend St Joseph's Primary School may wish to participate in the sacraments of First Confession (Reconciliation) or First Holy Communion during this year. If your child is currently in Year 3 or above and would like to celebrate their First Reconciliation, you are kindly asked to contact Father Duane Reilly. For those with children in Year 4 or above who wish to receive their First Holy Communion, please also speak to Father Duane Reilly. When contacting Father Reilly about joining the First Holy Communion Programme, please inform him if your child also needs to make their First Confession.

Registration forms for First Reconciliation and First Holy Communion are available at the back of St Patrick's and St. Joseph's churches.
